Summer 2018 Internship
Columbia Gorge Research LLC

Description: Columbia Gorge Research LLC (CGR) is looking for an intern with MATLAB experience, an interest in fiber optic sensor technology. The intern will be responsible for supporting data reduction, lab system tests, and generating reports. CGR performs field tests for customers on an as-needed basis. The summer 2018 intern may be offered the opportunity to support these tests.

Position: Technical Internship

Employment Period: June 2018 – Sep 2018

Location: split between telecommuting/work from home, and on campus (Fairview, Oregon facility)

Wage: $15-$20/hour depending on experience

Hours: Anticipate a ten week appointment with a total of 400 hours of work

Required Job Qualifications:

- MATLAB experience
- Microsoft Office proficiency
- Excellent writing skills
- Effective communication skills
- US citizenship

Educational Background:

- Seeking BS in Engineering (Electrical, Mechanical, Aerospace preferred), Physics, and or Math
- Optics course experience is desirable

Please submit a resume and cover letter to admin@cgresearchllc.com by March 15, 2018.